

Collin R. Fingon

Collin is a co-founder and owner of Bright Futures Wealth Management, LLC, and has been in the financial services industry since 2003. As a BFWM advisor, he enjoys helping clients identify and achieve their financial dreams. He helps investors sort through the information, products and advice available, and designs structured products that amplify upside potential while limiting downside risk.

“I specialize in helping my clients navigate the vast financial world and create specialized solutions unique to them,” Collin says.

Collin began his career in the financial services industry after earning an MBA. He continued his education at Boston University, taking courses in certified financial planning. Throughout his career and life, Collin has continued to educate and grow as a person and advisor, to be the best possible version of himself. He also spends a lot of time investing in and improving his home community.

He and his wife, Jackie, have a son, Asa, who was born in 2015 and twins Monico and Aurelia, who were born in 2021. They love to travel and enjoy the wonderful food and beverages the world has to offer. Locally, hobbies include an array of outdoor activities such as running, hiking, biking, skiing, paddleboarding, golfing, playing tennis and pickeball. Living in Vermont, they enjoy all aspects of all four seasons. ADV PART 2B
