

Martin E. Paul

Martin is an investment advisor and a co-founder of Bright Futures Wealth Management, LLC. He is also a registered representative at Cetera Advisors, LLC, and has been providing financial services to his clients since 1974. Marty maintains Series 1, Series 63 and Series 65 securities registrations and is securities licensed in 10 states.

He is licensed as an insurance producer and as a Massachusetts real estate broker. He graduated from Boston College with a degree in finance and is vice president of his BC alumni class.

Marty served in the U.S. Army as a Ranger and achieved the rank of captain. He also is a former president of the American Cancer Society, Massachusetts South Shore Unit. ADV PART 2B